TRAINING AND PERSONAL PROFILE

Please type your brief responses to the following questions on a separate piece of paper and attach to this application.

1. Are there other important aspects of your life for which you have a passion?
2. Why have you chosen to seek further training at this time rather than pursue work as a professional actor?
3. Theatre work is physically challenging. Is there anything about your physical condition which would prohibit you from participating fully in normal theatre activities?
4. List jobs you have held other than acting. Include job titles, the organization for which you worked, and dates.
5. List names, emails, and phone numbers (with area codes) of two directors or acting instructors with whom you have worked that we may contact as references. Letters of recommendation not required.

OPTIONAL STATISTICAL INFORMATION

This information will not be used in, or in any way affect, the admission decision. After a decision is made, however, certain facts may prove helpful in identifying candidates for specific privately-endowed scholarships. Your voluntary provision of this data is most appreciated.
